Mr. FOSTER, from the Committee on Invalid Pensions, made the following

REPORT.

The Committee on Invalid Pensions, to whom were referred the petition and papers of Edward Hardesty, asking a pension, report:

That they have duly considered the petition, and there being no proof but the averment of the petitioner himself, your committee ask to be discharged from the further consideration of the subject.

EDWARD HARDESTY.

April 6, 1890.—Ordered to be printed.

Mr. Foster, from the Committee on Invalid Pensions, made the following

REPORT.

The Committee on Invalid Pensions, to whom were referred the petition and papers of Edward Hardesty, asking a pension, report:

That they have duly considered the petition, and there being no proof but the averment of the petitioner himself, your committee ask to be discharged from the further consideration of the subject. The petitioner asks that it be increased to $5 per month, but fails to show on even affidavits that there is an increased disability, and bases his claim merely upon poverty and old age. Your committee are reluctantly compelled to reject his claim, and ask to be discharged from its further consideration.
